

2015 CAPTg Workshop

*Monday, September 14, 2015
Hyatt Regency Montreal, Quebec*

“Asphalt and Concrete Paving Best Practices – Equipment, Construction, and Inspection”

The success of any airfield paving project depends on many different factors including the use of good construction practices, the right equipment, and proper quality control inspection and testing measures. Without attention to detail and a commitment by everyone involved in the project to pursue quality workmanship, the end result will be a reduced lifespan of the pavement and higher long-term maintenance costs. With that in mind, this year's workshop will examine the necessary components of a high quality paving job from the contractor, equipment manufacturer, and field inspector perspective. Presentations will discuss the key components of paving equipment, construction techniques, and inspection as well as “Do’s” and “Don’ts” in each area of the process to provide you with the right information for your next project.

Come join us for this unique professional development and networking opportunity!
